PUBLIC 2 YEAR

Your senior year! It's a time to enjoy and a time to plan your next step. What better place to take that next step than at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College?

It's like this...

- It's the excitement of campus life, pep rallies, football games and other athletic events.

- It's the independence of living away from home for the first time, of choosing your own classes and making new friends.

- It's academic excellence that prepares you for tomorrow's opportunities.

- It's the personal success you'll find with a quality education from Gulf Coast.

- It's the opportunity to take classes that fit your busy schedule. Choose from on-campus, online, short-term, weekend or night classes.

It's your next step. Whether your goal is nursing, teaching or technology, Gulf Coast is the right choice for your higher education. And with eight locations in South Mississippi, a Gulf Coast campus or center is within just 30 minutes from your home. You can complete the first two years of education toward a four-year degree, enter a two-year technical program or choose a one-year program that will prepare you for a career immediately. The choice is yours. Now, that's convenient.

People of all ages attend Gulf Coast. You can commute to a campus or center, or you can enjoy residence life at the Perkinston Campus, the only Gulf Coast location with residence halls.

For almost 100 years, Gulf Coast has educated and influenced thousands upon thousands of individuals in South Mississippi and even the world. A top-100 community college in the nation for seven years running, it's earned the reputation as a powerhouse in everything from sports to academics to workforce training to the career-and-technical field. With the mission of making a positive difference in people's lives every day, the college is committed to world-class instruction for its more than 10,000 students.

The instructors at Gulf Coast know you're savvy in all forms of communication, and they know they have to stay current with
